The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, May 16. 1723.

London, May 16.

Yeſterday arrived the Mails from France and Flanders.

Lisbon, April 15.

THE Ship that put to Sea ſome Days paſt for the Brazils, is driven back hither by contrary Winds, and is at preſent refitting in Order for her Voyage. Advices from Cadiz ſay, that ſeveral Batallions of Spaniſh and Walloon Guards are ordered to march to Catalonia, to relieve others of the ſame Regiments in thoſe Parts; that the Marqueſs Mari was to ſail from that Port in a ſhort Time with ſix Men of War to cruize againſt the Barbary Corſairs; and that great Quantity of Bullion was daily coining in the Spaniſh Mints. No News of Importance has lately been received from Ceuta, neither has any Barbary Corſairs been of late ſeen either on the Coaſts of Spain, or of this Kingdom.

Vienna, May 5. Laſt Week the Emperour gave the late General Laimbruk's Regiment of Foot to the Prince of Culmbach, and the Cuiraſſiers of Goudecourt to the Prince of Modena. A good Body of Troops is drawing into the Neighbourhood of this City, to be ready to prevent Diſorders during the Abſence of the Court; and 'tis reported, that while their Imperial Majeſties continue in Bohemia, Count Thomas de Staremberg is to have the Adminiſtration of Civil Affairs; the Military are to be adminiſtred by the Count Daun, Field Marſhal; thoſe of Auſtria, by the Count de Harach; and the Direction of Matters within this City is to be entruſted to the Governour.

Hambourg, May 18. Advices from Petersbourg ſay, the Czar has cauſed his private Secretary M. Sekedin to be apprehended juſt as he was going to ſet out for Livonia; and that he is accuſed of giving Intelligence to foreign Courts of the Czar's Deſigns; but ſome are of Opinion, that he is concerned in Matters for which the late Chancellour Baron Schaffirof was diſgraced, and for that Purpoſe the Baron is newly remanded from Exile, in order to be further examined. The laſt Letters from Moſcow relate, that the Czar's Governour in Siberia has ſent an Account of an Engagement he has had with the Troops of Miri-Weys, in which the Perſians were vanquiſhed, having loſt ſeveral thouſand Men, and 1600 taken Priſoners by the Muſcovites; that the Governour purpoſing to purſue his Victories, had drawn together almoſt his whole Force, but coming up with the Enemy, found them greatly reinforced, ſo that their Number much ſurpaſſed the Muſcovites, by which Means 2000 of the latter were killed, and above that Number taken Priſoners; ſo that unleſs 10 freſh Regiments are ſent him, he cannot be able to ſuſtain another Shock.

Verſailles, May 21. The 15th Inſtant being Whitſunday-Eve, the King wore the Great Collar of the Order of the Holy Ghoſt, and went to the Chapel at the Caſtle, where his Majeſty received the Communion at the Hands of the Cardinal de Rohan, Grand Almoner of France. His Majeſty returned afterwards to the Caſtle, and touched a great Number of ſick Perſons. M. Maſſei, Archbiſhop of Athens, and Nuncio in Ordinary from the Pope, was admitted on the 18th Inſtant to a private Audience of the King. The Marqueſs Corſini, Envoy from the Grand Duke of Tuſcany, had likewiſe a private Audience the ſame Day, to compliment his Majeſty on his Majority, and had afterwards a private Audience of the Duke of Orleans.

Paris, May 22. On the 17th Inſtant, a Jew named Mordicai Duval, Native of Bourdeaux, aged 23 Years, was Chriſtned in the Church of the Abbey of Port-Royal in this City; the Count de Clermont, Prince of the Blood, and the Princeſs de Conti, ſtood Godfather and Mother, and named him Lewis. The Biſhop of Troyes performed the Baptiſmal Ceremony, and adminiſtred to him afterwards the two Sacraments of Confirmation and Communion. Sig. Moroſini, Ambaſſadour from Venice, is to make his publick Entry here upon Sunday next, the 30th Inſtant; his Coach of State coſts him above 40000 Livres. On the 16th Inſtant, a young Gentlewoman being carried upon a Party of Pleaſure to Chaillot, by a young Officer of her Acquaintance, was very angry with him, and another Gentleman, his Friend, becauſe they had not Money to pay the Reckoning; the Officer, to pacify her Anger, preſented her with his Sword that ſhe might take her Revenge, and accordingly ſhe gave him two Wounds, one of which is very dangerous. The Liquidations are about 21 Livres, and Actions 1020.
